Dear Editor of The Presbyterian

You were kind enough to print "Essentials to Missionary Endeavor" some time ago and that encourages me to try again for the sake of Missions.

Very Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Nolf:

I have your letter of March 21st. As for a trust company, I would go at once to the Real Estate Land Title and Trust Company, Broad and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia. Mr. J. Willison Smith, an elder in the Presbyterian Church is President. It is one of the strongest trust companies in the city and I have absolute confidence in the integrity of its management. I know Mr. Smith personally and a finer Christian gentleman is not to be found. His predecessor, Mr. Nicholson (now deceased), was a trustee and treasurer of the church I served here in Philadelphia during all my pastorate. In all I think he was treasurer of that church about thirty years. He established a company on sane and valid lines. It has some of the strongest financial men of the city interested in it. I would not give a second name for I know of none which I place in the same class.

Yours very sincerely,

WCR*E

Dear Mr. Nichols:

The Biblical Seminary of New York City is not the same as Union Seminary. The Biblical Seminary is a Bible school founded by Dr. W. W. White about thirty years ago, I think. It takes both men and women and gives instruction in a great variety of subjects. It trains workers other than clergymen though many of its graduates have entered the ministry. It has been soundly evangelical and is notable for Biblical exposition. It has no relation whatever to Union Seminary.

Of course, I need not tell you Union Seminary was formed by New School men sixty or seventy years ago and came under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly and in 1892 (I think it was) broke from that connection because the Assembly refused approval of the election of Dr. Charles A. Briggs to the professorship. Since that time it has changed its whole attitude and is now rather a theological university and includes extreme liberals and some who are very conservative.

I hope this answers your question.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:-

Are the " Biblical Seminary" of New York City and "Union Theological Seminary of New York City the same institution ? Is Union still known by the old name ?

Somehow I have gained the impression that Union has changed its name to the other but am not clear.
